

Refund and Cancellation Policy:

- We do not have any refund and cancellation policy as we do not take any charge for account opening and account activation process from the clients.
- Once your Trading and Demat account is opened any payments made thereafter will be credited towards your account. To withdraw any amount from such account, you may place withdrawal request.
- Opening of a Trading and Demat account with us takes approximately 24 hours. You may place the cancellation request with our support team within 12 to 18 hours of the submission of your application with us. On receipt of the cancellation request, the account opening shall not be proceeded with.